KILTED KNOWLEDGE: PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

I hope everyone is well. We are now into April and have finished our Anniversary Dinner and Food Drive.

I would like to thank my Vice-President for putting on an amazing dinner at Cherie Bistro. Everyone had a great time. Congratulations to all the Service Award Members and to everyone who received Appreciation Awards. Thank you to John and Scott for starting the Trailblazer Award. It was very appropriate that Russell Alldread, A.K.A. Michelle Dubarry was the first winner. The annual President's Award was awarded to Woody's for all their community work.

The next weekend was our Easter Food Drive. Thank you to everyone who volunteered that weekend. It was very much appreciated by myself and our Vice-President who did a great job putting it together.

Please mark on your calendars Saturday June 1st for a special membership meeting to go over the proposed changes to Constitution/Bylaws. The entire committee has worked very hard in putting it together. The membership will be emailed the proposed document soon. Remember our OGM on May 4th at the 519.

Stay Safe Everyone

HOLA SERVED VICE-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings, Spearhead Fam!
What an incredible journey it has been! As we gather to reminisce about our recent anniversary dinner, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the wonderful memories we've created together. From the delightful culinary delights to the heartwarming camaraderie, our anniversary celebration was truly a night to remember.

First and foremost, let's give a round of applause to all the deserving recipients of our prestigious awards. Among them, let's shine a spotlight on our Brotherhood Award Winner, the remarkable Scott Leroux. Your dedication and commitment to our community are truly inspiring.

Of course, none of this would have been possible without the creative minds and diligent efforts of our incredible team. A heartfelt thank you goes out to Randy B. for designing our stunning awards, Xavier T. for crafting our eye-catching posters and menu cards, Ron G. for overseeing the production of our awards, and John T. for managing the Brotherhood award and Charity Choice voting process. Your contributions are invaluable, and we are immensely grateful for your hard work.

But let's not forget the true spirit of our community – giving back. Our recent food drive was a resounding success, thanks to the generosity and support of each and every one of you. Together, we raised approximately $2700 and collected about 500 pounds of food, making a meaningful impact on those in need. Your dedication to serving others is truly commendable, and I couldn't be prouder of our collective efforts.

However, as we reflect on our achievements, it's important to acknowledge the need for fresh perspectives and new faces to join our cause. While I am incredibly grateful for the dedication of our long-time supporters, I also urge our community to embrace diversity and inclusivity by welcoming new voices and ideas. Together, let's ensure that our future fundraisers continue to thrive and evolve.

Looking ahead, I am excited to announce the formation of our 55th anniversary committee. If you share our passion for making a difference and want to be a part of something truly special, I invite you to reach out to me and join our committee. Together, let's write the next chapter of our remarkable journey and continue to make a positive impact on the world around us.

With warm regards,

PWA ESSENTIALS FOOD MARKET

The Essentials Market at the People With AIDS Foundation is unlike any other food bank in Toronto. We allow clients to select the food they want and need, rather than making those decisions for them. All of the food in the Essentials Market is nutritionally dense, because good nutrition is essential for maintaining good health, especially when you're HIV positive.

DENIM DISCUSSIONS:

MESSAGE FROM THE MEMBERSHIP DIRECTOR

Happy 54th Anniversary SPEARHEAD. I don't know where the years have gone, while reminiscing about my past with SPEARHEAD.

I was living in Europe when the Club was started. A few years later, I met a few Members of SPEARHEAD and was introduced to Paint your Burger. Boy oh boy, was it different than it is now. In those days it was held in someone's backyard. For just $5.00 you could have all the hamburgers you can eat and all the beer you could drink. Condiments, like ketchup and mustard etc., were applied to your burger using paint brushes and hence the name Paint your Burger. Those were the days.

Then someone told me about the Round-Up. So one year I decided to go and it was the best weekend of camaraderie. I had met a chap called Hank H and he became a good friend so I decided to hang around for a while. I kept going to bar nights, Paint your Burger and other events. I used to supply the Club with all fresh produce for these events and I was known as Dominion Joe. Well then they asked me to become a member and I've been here for 45 years and still having a great time.

Hope you all had a great time at the Dinner. The food was great. Membership Renewals are still coming in. So I'll have a final tally at the next OGM. Let's see more Members come out to the meeting. Remember if you have any questions about your membership feel free to reach out to me at membership@spearheadtoronto.com.

It comes as a surprise to many new members that their freshly sewn-on colours do not give them access to 100 new friends. It would seem at times that it is easier to make friends with an out-of-town member when you're away from Toronto on a trip than it is with all the sixty or seventy in-town members. Why?

The comraderie of the club scene is frequently touted as one of the major benefits of "belonging." In a small group it is easier to see your fellow members as brothers, comrades, friends. But in a larger organization, friendship does not necessarily accompany acceptance as a member. No one could be expected to necessarily 'like' all one hundred or so members, let alone develop a close friendship with 'em all.

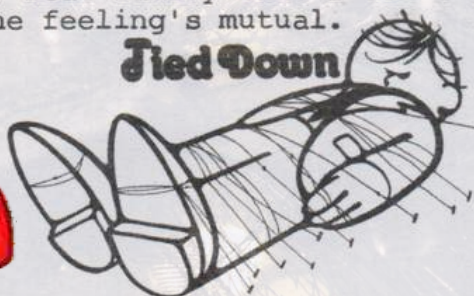

At the same time, those of us who have been on the scene for a number of years have a responsibility to welcome newcomers. In this, we frequently fall down. How many times have you heard - or perhaps said - "He wouldn't have gotten in if I'd had anything to do with it!"

Keep in mind that sixteen of your peers did have something to do with it. While not all sixteen might agree on the prospective member, the majority must before he is accepted.

I certainly don't consider every Spearhead member a close friend, nor do I necessarily 'like' every member. But somewhere along the line each of us was evaluated as to suitability for membership by five members in good standing, the Membership Committee, and finally the Board. I must respect their judgement.

We are, in a sense, a family. And I must confess that there are some members of my real family that I don't even like. Then again, I guess the feeling's mutual.

The Price of Brotherhood

by Bruce R. Slater Treasurer (1997/1998) (*From MAR/APR 1998 Phalia Issue.

The Main Question

Just what does Brotherhood cost? It seems that there are members who are wondering just where does my renewal fee go? And what am I getting out of it for myself?

Privileges

First of all, let's compare our annual fee to annual fees of Auto Clubs, Shopping Clubs, Credit Cards etc. What does one get from these particular 'Memberships'? One thing is the security of belonging to something that one may need to use at some time. The second thing is the privilege of using the club's services. In most cases, the fee far exceeds what the member is going to derive from the club unless they partake of the services.

If you are looking for a dollar value for the membership fee, check the discounts that members derive from our events.

The main event (and most costly) is the Run. This year, members have the option of paying their Run fee in advance (starting at $165) and saving up to $35 on the total if paid before April 30th. A non-member's advance booking starts at $200, maximum $225. The annual Spearhead Christmas party usually costs approximately $1000 to run but it is free to members (based on that price, the cost per member is approximately $15 each). The Board has tried to put a larger spread on the prices for events between members and non-members so that the members are getting a better value for their membership dollar.

Reality Costs

Due to the wicked ways of the real world, Spearhead has had to take out insurance. This costs about $2900 per year, which represents approximately 60% or $42 of every renewal (based on 70 renewals). We have insurance for the very same reason that you buy car insurance...to make sure our butts are covered if an accident should occur at any of our events. We are billed just after renewal time, thus the bank account looks really good for only a couple of weeks. Speaking of the bank account, it of course fluctuates a few times a year-during renewal time, the Anniversary dinner and the Run. After insurance, the balance of the renewal fee is used for administration and paying for event expenses up front (bar nights, deposit on the Run site, rental of helium tanks for balloons, etc.) As for administration, we have to buy stationary, postage, ink cartridges for printers, as well as pay for the maintenance of our bank account.

A Much Bigger Question

Now, why do we pay to belong to such a club?... And we work at all of the events too? Some may think we're crazy but we know better. We do it to belong to a brotherhood of team workers, to belong to an organization that we're proud of. In effect, we've created our own family. We have our camaraderie as well as our rivalries...just like most families. Spearhead, as a whole, has gained the respect of the community and we all enjoy the security that we share.

A very brief synopsis

The renewal fee is divided by administration costs; insurance $60%, upfront event expenses for 40%. It is up to the individual member to take advantage of the discounts given at each event if they are looking for the dollar value of their membership. In actuality, Spearhead needs the renewal fee as well as the profits from bar nights to exist.

( Director of Publications' note....There are other/additional expenses that Spearhead covers including storage locker fees, post box rental, printing costs, community appreciation awards, continued trademark registration, and don't forget, website administration costs (an expense I'm not sure we were thinking too much about in March/April of 1998). In an attempt to contain printing, stationary and postage expenses, many Spearhead communications (including Phalia) are now distributed electronically.)

These photos should cheer the hearts of oldtimers. The Parkside, on Yonge Street (opposite where TRAX was), was a popular meeting spot after work for Spearhead members. A block and a half south was the St. Charles. The back alley route between the two was a trip in itself. The photos were taken in the mid 70s by Bruce Peto.

Times: Are They A-Changing?

I think I'm right in saying we all enjoy being associated with a winner. I also think I'm right in saying we'd all back a loser if we thought there was half a chance that loser was a "Secretariat" or a "Seattle Slew" in disguise.

In the thirteen years that Spearhead has been around, the members have worked hard to ensure that everything we did was top quality entertainment — not only for ourselves because we were too busy working — but for those of our community who supported us.

Well, our community has changed. And we had better be prepared to change with it or we won't be around to see fifteen years. The mystery that once surround this affiliation — the "leather-denim mystique" has gone. We can still wear leather and denim but I don't think the old associations go with it anymore.

Our own community and the straight community as well has become far more aware of what is going on around them. The "illusions" have been torn away from certain aspects of our lifestyles. The sooner we change to adapt ourselves to the changes around us the quicker we will ensure the survival of Spearhead.

It serves a purpose to all of us if that purpose be only "belonging" to something. Let's face it! We're a social club — and what we used to do was great. We are still capable of doing great things but we've got to change what we do.

I'm not throwing stones at anyone but the last couple of functions were less than a resounding success. I think our future lies in smaller gatherings — something along the lines of get-togethers that foster mutual respect and mutual appreciation. I don't propose to have a lot of ideas but obviously bigger is not always better. I think we've learned our lesson in the past. But where do we go from here?

THE FINAL WORD: PUBLICATIONS DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Happy 54th Anniversary SPEARHEAD! The Anniversary Dinner was a fantastic event at Cherie Bistro. The menu was filled with delicious items which made it difficult to decide what to choose. Congratulations to VP Daniel and the team on a successful Dinner. It was great to see members from E.C.M.C, Ottawa Knights and T.I.C.O.T. in attendance.

With the stepdown of Charles M from the Board of Directors, please welcome back Xavier T, to the Board, as the Interim Director of Operations. We wish Charles all the best in his future endeavors.

Congratulations to all of the nominees for this year's Brotherhood Award and Charity of Choice. Scott Leroux and The PWA Essentials Food Market were chosen by the membership and deserve the appreciation for their dedication to our community. Thank you John T for overseeing the process.

Congratulations to all of recipients of Appreciation Awards, Years of Service Awards and this year's President's Award which was awarded to Woody's and the inaugural Trailblazer Award presented to Russell Alldread.

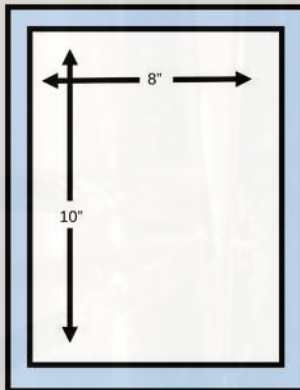

Another successful Easter Food Drive had much support from the community. Thank you to Flash, Pegasus and Woody's for allowing us to hold events at their locations. Thanks to Toronto Kennel Klub, P.A.L.S., G.L.U.E. and James Quigley for holding 'in support of' events for our Food Drive. As always, the success of this event would not be possible without the volunteers and everyone's donations. Thank you. All the proceeds will support our newly chosen charity the PWA Essentials Food Programs.

Thank you to everyone that submitted an item for this edition of Phalia. The deadline for the next issue will be June 8, 2024. Pride 2024 is just around the corner. As always your articles and/or photos are welcome and very much appreciated. Also keep in mind that Nominations for Board of Directors and Executive Committee positions are coming up. So if you are thinking about running for a position, consider entering an article about yourself and your intentions for that position. All the best!
